

Cultural and Systemic Considerations for Working With Latine Communities

Sept. 29, 2023
10 am– 12 pm

Live Webinar

Program Overview

This training will center on cultural and contextual considerations for working with Latine individuals and families. We will take a broad look at different aspects that impact this work, including cultural, immigration, and systemic factors, as well as discrimination and oppression. Within the frame of cultural responsiveness, we will present practical tools and evidence-based approaches to support the work of providers working with Latine communities.

Who Should Participate

This workshop will be beneficial to social workers, counselors, mental health care providers, case managers, human service workers, and anyone who is interested in the topic.

As part of our commitment to diversity and inclusion, the Northwest AHEC provides compassionate education and respectful care for all, regardless of socioeconomic status, race, ethnicity, language, nationality, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, religion, geography, disability and age.

Objectives

Upon completion of this course, you should be able to:

- Participants will learn strategies for identifying and incorporating cultural and contextual factors impacting Latine mental health into their practice.
- Participants will gain awareness of evidence-based models of care for Latine families.
- Participants will learn effective communication strategies for helping Latine families dealing with acculturative differences.
