

After Discharge: Maternal and Infant Assessment in the Home

October 23, 2024
9 am – 2:15 pm

Live Webinar

Program Overview

This activity will increase the ability of the provider to perform a home visit for a new postpartum family.

Who Should Participate

This program will be beneficial to nurses and other health care providers in health departments, hospitals, and home health agencies who are interested in the care of childbearing families.

As part of our commitment to diversity and inclusion, the Northwest AHEC provides compassionate education and respectful care for all, regardless of socioeconomic status, race, ethnicity, language, nationality, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, religion, geography, disability and age.

Objectives

Upon completion of this knowledge-based program, participants should be better able to:

- Differentiate normal and abnormal postpartum assessment findings in the new mother.
- Formulate a plan of care for assessment of perinatal depression.
- Examine the critical elements necessary to complete a thorough newborn assessment.
- Discuss strategies for supporting breastfeeding in the home.
- Implement culturally competent assessment strategies to address the diverse needs of postpartum mothers and infants, ensuring equitable care and support across varying socioeconomic, racial, and ethnic backgrounds.
- Identify strategies for increasing personal safety while performing a home assessment.
